Center City Alcohol Addendum

Thank you for reserving space for your event at UNC Charlotte Center City. Our records indicate that you plan to serve alcohol at your event. In order to fully comply with University Policy 706, which governs the possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages on campus, and to comply with State law, the following information applies to your event. If you are not familiar with this policy, please thoroughly read the policy, as there may be additional policies that apply to your specific event that are not listed below. Failure to comply with the law and University policy in connection with the service of alcoholic beverages may result in suspension of privileges, disciplinary action, personal civil liability or personal criminal liability. Please thoroughly read each statement below and initial after each.

The host and individual(s) signing the alcohol request form must be on site for the duration of alcohol service. ____

Alcohol can be served for a maximum of two hours. Those may be consecutive or split into different services. For example, 6pm-8pm or 6pm-7pm and 8pm to 9pm. ____

A UNC Charlotte police officer will be scheduled to be on site during alcohol service, plus one hour before and one hour after service begins and ends. The cost of the officer is the responsibility of the host of the event. ____

Registration is required. Events serving alcohol cannot be "open to the public". Walk-in registration may be permitted, if arranged and approved in advance. Walk-ins must be registered by the host of the event at the registration table. ____

A check in table must be staffed for the duration of the event by the host of the event. ____

Name tags are required in order to identify those who have registered for the event. ____

All attendees are subject to providing evidence of the legal age to consume alcohol. There are no exceptions to this rule. There are a variety of ways to accomplish this. Center City staff can make recommendations but guests must provide proof of age when requested by the bartender. ____

In general, you should plan to spend a minimum of $15/per guest in order to provide enough food proportionate to alcohol service. The catering staff at Center City can help determine the appropriate amount of food necessary. If your budget does not allow a proportionate amount of food, alcohol service will not be permitted. ____

Non-alcoholic beverages, other than water, must be prominently displayed and offered. ____

You may not charge a fee to attend the event, as this is considered sale of alcohol and prohibited by State law. ____

There will be no marketing of alcohol service in advertisements or invitations. ____

Violation or attempts to circumvent these policies will result in termination of alcohol service. Termination is at the sole discretion of the signing authority. ________

I have read and thoroughly understand Policy 706 and have asked additional questions I may have regarding the policy. ________
